THE ELECTIONS.

WHAT THE WIRES BRING FROM OTHER STATES.

Robinson Leading in the City--Potter Making a Clean Sweep--Ben Butler Bottled Up.

Subjoined are the telegraphic reports received up to 2 o'clock A. M. As will be seen Long, the Republican candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, has been elected by a plurality of from 10,000 to 15,000. Of course this will not discourage General Butler; next year he will come up again in a new combination only to make another unsuccessful run.

THE NEW YORK ELECTION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The election is passing off quietly in Brooklyn, and it is expected by sun down when the polls close, that the vote will not fall far short than 75,000. The Democrats of the regular division claim they will elect their entire ticket, but the Republicans scout the idea and say they are making great havoc in the Democratic ranks The Kelly boom does not appear to assert its sway with that degree of energy which his adherents had confirmed the anticipation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Fifty city election districts give Cornell, 3,405; Robinson, 3,997; Kelly, 2,846; Haskins, 3,462; Potter, 6,557.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—10 P. M.—Three hundred city districts out of six hundred and seventy-eight, give Cornell 20,467; Robinson 26,699; Kelly 18,667. Sixty-nine more districts in the State outside of the city, show a net Republican gain of 341 for Lieutenant Governor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—10:40 P. M.—The city will give Kelly 40,000 votes, with Potter's vote more than double Cornell's. The Democratic State ticket except Governor, is elected. The vote on county officers is close, but Tammany probably elects its nominees.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—12 M.—Five hundred city election districts out of six hundred and seventy-eight, give Cornell 33,522; Robinson 43,561; Kelly 33,249; Haskins 35,728; Potter 73,413.

NEW YORK, 11:30.—Two hundred and sixty-one towns, districts, or wards in this State heard from up to this hour give Robinson 43,804; Cornell 62,995; Kelly 6,118. One hundred and eighty-eight towns, districts and wards show a net Republican gain for Lieutenant Governor over the vote for Governor in 1876 of 2,241. An extra edition of the Express at 10 P. M declares that Cornell is elected, but considers the result of the State doubtful.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4,—Special to the Gazette from New York World office says: Robinson's majority in the city is 13,000. The balance of the ticket has 50,000 and is elected. Kings county gives Robinson 12,000 majority. State returns show irregular losses and gains.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 4—11:45 P. M.—In sixty-five districts the vote is as follows: Cornell 11,689; Robinson 15,586; Kelly 2,068.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 4, 11:40 P. M.—In seventy-eight Brooklyn districts the vote stands Robinson 18,790, Cornell 15,955, Kelly 2,481.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 4—The full vote of this city gives Butler a majority of 3,578 over all, which is a gain of 719 for Butler over last year. Nineteen towns in various parts of the State give Long 2,738 majority over Butler.

BOSTON, Nov 4.—Eighty-three towns and ten cities, including Boston, give Long 3,234 majority over Butler.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—One hundred and eleven towns and cities give Long 62,116, Butler 55,672, Adams 4,550. Last year's vote was, Talbot 68,198, Butler 66,375, Abbot 4,900.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—One hundred and thirty-seven towns and sixteen cities give Long 6,504 majority over Butler.

BOSTON, Nov. 4, 8:25 P. M.—Returns, as far as received, indicate that Long, the Republican candidate for Governor, is elected by from 10,000 to 13,000 plurality, which may be increased to 15,000 by further returns. The Republican candidates for State officers are probably all elected, and the Legislature will be largely Republican. The vote shows a material falling off as compared with last year.

BOSTON, Nov. 4, 9:50 P. M.—The defeat of Butler is now conceded by his own friends, who allow that Long's plurality will be 8,000; but there is every indication that it will reach 15,000, and may touch 17,000. Republican Councillors are elected, and the Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican.

THE WISCONSIN ELECTION.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 4, 8 P. M.—The city of Milwaukee gives Smith Republican, for Governor, 2,000 majority, with three precincts to hear from. Republican gain of about 3,000 over the vote of two years ago.

LATER.

The city of Milwaukee complete gives Smith, Republican, for Governor, 2,132 majority. The city of Madison is unusually Democratic, giving Smith only 30 majority. Returns from thirty-one towns and cities outside of Milwaukee, show Republican gain of 12,000 over the vote of two years ago.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 4.—The election to-day excited great interest but was quiet. The debt payers have carried the county and Senatorial district by a large majority. In the adjoining district the reports indicate the defeat of General Fitzhugh Lee by Duff Green, readjuster. A remarkable incident to-day was the appearance of a large body of colored voters with fife and drum, following the Virginia flag. They voted for the debt payers' candidate.

ALEXANDERIA, Va., Nov, 4.—This city gives 553 majority for the debt payers, candidates for the legislature which insures their election.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 4.—Alexandria City and county gives Mushbuch, candidate for the House of Delegates, and Smith, candidate for the Senate, both debt payers, 542 majority. The vote in the city was very small.

NORFOLK, Nov. 4.—The Readjusters have carried Norfolk by 19 majority. In Portsmouth there is a tie between the Readjusters and Funders candidates for the House of Delegates. Macon, Readjuster, is probably elected Senator from the Norfolk district, and Boush, Republican, is probably elected from the Portsmouth district. The negroes voted almost unanimously with the Readjusters.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 4.—A dispatch from Charlottesville says the Funders have carried Albemarle and defeated Massey one of the leaders of the Readjusters, which is considered a good indication of a great victory for the McCulloch bill.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct 4, 11:45 P. M.—The vote in this city was the smallest ever polled, there being no opposition to the Funders' or Debt-payers' ticket. But few negroes voted. Returns from other portions of the State show that the fight between the Funders and Readjusters has been stubborn, and the indications are that the majority in the Legislature of the successful party will be small. Returns as yet are too meager to state positively which side will have a majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.

HARRISONBURG, Va., Nov. 4.—The anti-McCulloch candidates for legislature in this part of the State have secured an overwhelming majority over the friends of that bill.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Returns from thirty towns and townships in Western Pennsylvania give Butler (Republican), 916 majority; a Republican gain over the vote for Governor in 1878 of 112. Returns from the Eastern counties are meager, but all show Republican gains. Nine wards out of thirty-one in the city of Philadelphia show a Republican gain of 4,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The indications now are that the city of Philadelphia has gone Republican by a larger majority than ever before known on the State ticket. Returns from all over the State continue to show Republican gains.

PHILADELPHIA, 11 P. M.—Partial returns from twenty-four out of sixty-seven counties in this State exclusive of Philadelphia county show Republican gain of 6,000. Twenty-seven wards in Philadelphia out of thirty-one gives Butler Republican for State treasurer 26,216 majority over Barr Democrat, a Republican gain of 9,701.

THE ILLINOIS ELECTION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The election today was quiet and peaceable. A full vote was polled. Party lines were pretty strictly drawn, and the figures thus far indicate a very close contest.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Nov. 4.—The election passed of quiet, but little will be known from the results before morning.

At 2 A. M. the indications are that every Northern State except New York has gone Republican. The reports from that State are indefinite, but it is believed the Democratic State ticket has been elected with the exception of Robinson.

Through a Drawbridge.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The train on the Greenwood Lake Railroad ran off the Hackensack drawbridge this morning. The engineer was killed. There were about twenty persons in the coach, mostly business men living at Arlington, Mount Clair and Greenwood Lake, who were en route to New York. Several were badly injured, but as far as known none fatally. All were rescued before the coach filled with water.

Additional dispatches state that no one was killed except the engineer, Dexter, who, when he discovered that the draw was open, reversed his engine and jumped and was killed by the force of the jump. The engine and passenger coach were precipitated into the river. The fireman, who remained at his post, and the conductor were both slightly injured. The passenger coach floated on the water and the passengers were taken out by men in small boats.

Death of a Notorious Outlaw.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—Dispatches from points in southwestern Missouri and southeastern Kansas reports the killing of Jesse James of the notorious James Boys, supposed to have been one of the gang which robbed the train at Glendale, Mo., recently, by Geo. Shephard, formerly a member of the same gang. Shepherd joined James, who with the party was on the road to Texas. After riding with them some distance, Shepherd suddenly shot James in the head and wheeled his horse and fled escaping with a shot in the thigh from one of James' companions. Shepherd cherished an enmity against James for killing a relative. James' body has not yet been found.

Marine Disaster.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 4.—A schooner, name unknown, went ashore last night at Broad Cave, Cape Elizabeth, and went to pieces. The crew was all drowned, owing to the heavy sea. No assistance could be rendered, although the vessel was plainly visible from the shore. She appeared to be ice laden, as much saw dust floated out. It is reported that five bodies were washed ashore.

LYNCH LAW IN MISSOURI.

BILL YOUNG TAKEN OUT AND HANGED AFTER ACQUITTAL.

His Marriage and Flight After the Verdict---His House Surrounded by a Mob.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31.—A dispatch to the Enquirer gives full particulars in regard to the acquittal, marriage and lynching of Bill Young, in Clark county, Missouri. Young was accused of the murder of Lewis Spencer and his four children, near Luray, Clark county, in 1877. There was strong circumstantial evidence against him, and, when the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, the community was shocked. The verdict was freely attributed to dread on the part of the jury lest Young and his friends should afterward take vengeance upon them, had he been convicted of the murder. The verdict was delivered on Saturday, and on Sunday afternoon Young was married at Kahokia to Miss Lydia Bray, of Ohio, to whom he had been engaged before his arrest, and who has been for the past four months assisting him in preparing his defense. They arrived in Kahokia on Monday evening, and remained there until Wednesday morning, when they departed for Young's house, near Luray. Their movements were closely watched.

On Tuesday night a mob numbering between two hundred and three hundred men assembled north of Kahokia, and was waiting there on Wednesday morning when the train passed. Finding that Young had gone to his home, and two ladies had called on Mrs. Young—Coffman, one of Young's lawyers, was also there—the mob surrounded the house, and demanded that all but Young should come out. Coffman and the two visitors went out, but Young kept his wife and children with him. Firing was soon opened, Young's mode of defense was to open the door, fire into the crowd, and dodge back, the mob returning the fire whenever he made his appearance. This was kept up until Young had received four wounds, and fell to the floor bleeding and exhausted. The mob then piled hay around the house, and were about to fire it, when Young's children came running out, exclaiming," "Father is killed!"

A squad of men then entered the house, brought Young out, placed him on a wagon, ran it under an orchard gateway leading to the premises, and placed a rope around his neck. They then endeavored to extort a confession from him, but reports differ as to how they succeeded. Some say that he admitted enough to convince them of his guilt, and that he mentioned the names of Longford and Bill Rhodes has having been engaged in the murder. Others say that he maintained his innocence to the last. It was proposed to him that if he would pay the cost of prosecution, make a confession, and leave the State he would be released, and it is said that he agreed to all but the confession. After allowing him to make his will, the lynchers drove off the wagon, and he was left hanging until he was dead.

Young had been warned at various points along the road that a mob was waiting to hang him, but he refused to stop. His only reply was that he had beaten them once and could do it again, and that he did not propose to run off or be frightened off. The men were no masks, and made no attempt at concealment. Many of them are well-known citizens of Clark county. Others are said to have come from Illinois and Iowa. A large number were boys from fourteen to eighteen years old. The crowd had been drinking freely, and were no doubt greatly incited to the desperate deed by liquor. Detective Lane was among the leaders in the movement, and is said to have taken a very active part in the hanging. None of the mob were wounded so far as known.

Physicians went to Young's residence, after the lynching, and tried to revive him, but, although his heart was still beating, they failed. He had received a shot in the right arm, and four in the right breast, and the windows of his house were broken by pistol bullets. Coffman, the lawyer, who was last seen in the custody of the mob going from the house, is missing. Detective Lane does not deny that he was with the mob, and took part in the lynching, though the persons who actually did the shooting and hanging were nine picked men, not known in Clark county. Young leaves five young children.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Warrants were granted yesterday for the arrest of all persons known to have been engaged in the lynching of Bill Young at Luray, Mo., last Wednesday. Detective Lane, who was very active in procuring evidence against Young, is said to have led the lynching mob, and several citizens of Luray are among those who are to be arrested. The warrants were issued at the instance of Young's wife. J. C. Coffman, one of Young's lawyers, from Ohio, who was at Young's house when the mob surrounded it, and who has been missing since yesterday, appeared at Memphis, Mo., on his way home. It is said that he admits that an attempt was made to bribe the jury in Young's favor.

The coffin was of immense size, and before it was delivered two ordinary men lay in it side by side on their backs, without crowding each other in the least. When it was brought to the house it could not be got in the door, and it was necessary to leave it outside until the time set for the funeral, when the corpse was carried out to the coffin.

Preparing to Beat Hanlan's Chautauqua Lake Time.

Auburn (N. Y.) News and Bulletin, 1st.

Courtney went from Union Springs to Ensenore, Wednesday 22d, to continue his training and exercise on Owasco Lake, preparatory to the pull against time to beat Hanlan's alleged record at Mayville.

To show his confidence in his powers Courtney will undertake to do a course of fully five miles, with correct timing, thus giving the double odds against himself. Sporting men in this city who held watches over Hanlan's time on Chautauqua Lake, insist that he was forty minutes in going over the course.

Courtney will use one of his old boats in practice, his new shell requiring something over a week yet, for completion and seasoning.

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THAT "bar'l" of S. J. T.'s is a rankling thorn in the side of the Tribune.

MANY of our people watched anxiously last night for the election returns from New York.

THE Kelly boom didn't amount to much in Brooklyn. "Boss" McLaughlin is a bigger political boss in the City of Churches than "Boss" Kelley is in New York.

ON the first page will be found a short sketch of a Missouri lynching. Young was arrested and tried for a murder alleged to have been committed two years ago, and was acquitted of the charge, the testimony being weak in every point. Still many thought the man was guilty. A detective named Lane had worked the case up; there was a pair of bloody overalls to be produced in evidence; yet when the case was up for trial the detective and the overalls were missing. Now the detective turns up as one of the lynching party. If there was a particle of proof against the man why was it not brought out at the trial? The class of detectives represented by Lane should be frowned down by honest people. Young may have been guilty but the mere say so of a sneak like Lane doesn't make it so. Lynch law should never be executed unless a man is taken red-handed. It is now the duty of the Missouri authorities to pay some attention to Lane. It was his business and his duty to have been on hand at the trial. Failing to do that he should be punished.

WE, as well as others of our State contemporaries, have mixed the titles of our revenue officials. It has been the habit heretofore in many instances to denominate any officer of the revenue service an "agent." It is as well to call things by the right name and avoid misunderstandings. There are only thirty-five "agents" in the United States, and they really belong to the staff of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington—appointed by him. For the States of North and South Carolina there are two agents. The Sixth District of North Carolina and the District of South Carolina comprise one agent's "division," and the remaining three collection districts of North Carolina comprise the other. The South Carolina and Sixth North Carolina Districts were under the supervision of revenue agent W. H. Chapman for the year past, but since the Gaston county exposure we learn that this gentleman has been transferred to another field of duty, and that Colonel Horace Kellogg, formerly of this division, has been assigned to Chapman's old division. The revenue agent's division of North Carolina proper, including all the collection districts except the Sixth, is in charge of revenue agent O. H. Blocker, whose official address is Raleigh. Mr. Revenue Agent Kellogg's address is Statesville.

IN his annual report, General R. B. Marcy, inspector general United States army, says: "It affords me much gratification to be able to give attestation to the fact that the inspectors' reports for the past year show conclusively that the officers of the army are habitually temperate, and not addicted to gambling or other vicious habits. The rank and file are enlisted from much more respectable classes than I have ever before known during my forty-seven years of military service, and the troops generally have evinced a most commendable spirit." This is somewhat better than it used to be. Yet those who are acquainted with army life know there is a vast amount of gambling going on. Officers hypothecate their pay accounts two and three months in advance, and cards, as a general thing, swallow up the bulk of their pay. Inspector General Marcy is undoubtedly honest in his report, but what does he know, from actual observation, he a staff officer of high rank, of the daily, or rather nightly, doings of regimental officers? He does not meet them except in the strict line of official intercourse, and their private course of life is as a sealed book to him. But a short time ago a young officer committed suicide on account of ruin staring him in the face, resulting from the card table. There is a regulation existing prohibiting disbursing officers from indulging in games of chance. How often is this rule violated? False vouchers have to be made, and as long as the alleged expenditures come within the line of regular expenditures—as long as the accounts are in compliance with the Army Regulations and general orders, they are audited, and the officer's "I certify on honor," makes the voucher valid.

THE ELECTIONS.

Elections were held in several of the States yesterday for the choice of the whole or a part of the State officers. Naturally the most interest centered on New York, as the largest State and most important in its results. The State had been well canvassed; perhaps owing to the thorough manner of making polling lists a truer estimate of the result had never been formed; and it was well understood that the result would have no immaterial bearing upon the Presidential nominations next year. Mr. Tilden staked his all on the re-election of Governor Robinson, fully understanding that he was to fall if Mr. Robinson was defeated.

The returns came in slowly last night, and at the time our first side went to press Governor Robinson was about seven thousand ahead in a half part of the city, with Mr. Kelly chasing Mr. Cornell closely. Of the country returns no estimate can be formed, as no districts can be specified, whether Republican or Democratic. The ninety-five districts mentioned are probably in Dutchess and Orange, two strong Republican counties. Nothing accurate can be given before to-morrow morning.

In Massachusetts the returns indicate that General Butler is beaten in a worse manner than he was last year. Yet Long, the Republican candidate, does not appear to have polled the vote that Talbot did last year. Combining Butler's and Adams' vote it will not reach Long's. It was evident from the first that Butler could not poll enough votes to elect him, and as he is not an exponent of Democracy we feel no especial interest in his defeat or success. He is nothing but a demagogue, and besides the election will have no real effect on the political relation of Massachusett. to the country.

From Virginia the returns are meager, and there is no possibility of forming a just estimate. Alexandria has been carried by the Funders and Norfolk by the Readjusters. At the present writing (1 A. M.) not a satisfactory word has been received from Richmond.

Pennsylvania is not important, as a treasurer is the only State officer to be elected, and there is nothing definite. The Philadelphia city fight has no bearing on the State at large, and the opposing tickets are made up of the best men on either side. The ring men have had to step down.

STALLIONS FIGHTING.

Rearing, Kicking and Biting---Two Valuable Horses Badly Injured.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 1.—Aaron Maskel's farm, near the village of Friedensburg, was the scene of a fight between two large stallions one day last week. The animals fought with such fury that it was feared that both might be killed before they could be separated.

Among the horses that Mr. Maskel had taken to winter, were the five-year-old stallion Gold King, belonging to Robert Dunlap, of Philadelphia, and the three-year-old stallion Schuylkill Chief. The former is a very vicious animal, and the latter so gentle that a child may drive him. The two had been taken out to be watered and exercised, and at the watering trough Gold King kicked the Chief in the ribs.

At this the Chief began to rear and utter cries of anger, and an effort was made to take him to the stable; but the throat latch on Gold King's bridle broke, and with a terrible leap and a cry of rage he sprang at the Chief. The hostler fled over a fence, leaving the two stallions to fight it out. The two left by themselves reared on their hind legs, and then bit, kicked, and pawed one another until they were literally covered with blood. During the battle they uttered ries of rage, and as they rushed upon each other the recoil sent them back on their haunches. Still the fight was continued. Maskel and his hired man viewed the battle for a time, and then started off to summon the neighboring farmers to assist them in stopping it. About an hour later they were reinforced by about a hundred men and boys; but the question was to get the horses apart, and who would go into the barnyard to do it. At length lassos were made, and the two animals were captured and led away.

Both stallions were badly, but not fatally injured. Both were covered with cuts and bruises. Gold King seems to have suffered the greatest injury, his legs being frightfully gashed. The Chief suffered more from the teeth of his opponent than from the feet, long strips of flesh being torn from his sides. Both horses, even after they had been put into their stalls, continued to utter cries of rage.

Loss of Mail Matter.

Charlotte Observer, 1st.

Within the past week or two between a half dozen and a dozen business men of this city have lost valuable mail matter between Charlotte and New York and other points North. One firm has heard nothing of a letter in which was enclosed a check for $1,600 to a New York house; another has had three letters—one containing a check for $500, the other one of $700, and the third a letter of inquiry with regard to the other two—lost or misplaced in like manner, and could not even learn until it telegraphed, yesterday, whether or not any of the three had reached its destination. A bank has also had a check lost in the mails, and three or four business houses have lost similar papers, but calling for smaller amounts. Coming all together as they do these losses call for comment. All the checks were, of course, made payable to order, and the fact that they are of no value until indorsed by the parties in whose names they are drawn, forbids the idea that they could have been appropriated. It is possible that in the cases where the letters were addressed to firms in New York the senders here, in disregard of the postmaster-general's silly order, failed to write "N. Y.," after the name of the city, and that some route agent has taken it upon himself to send such letters to the dead letter office (the postmaster here has not dealt thus with any mail); but even if this were true there has been sufficient time in a majority of these cases for the senders to have received notification from that office. It must be that there has been gross carelessness somewhere. By it our business men are being much inconvenienced, and explanations and improvements are in order.

Rough Rice.

New Berne Democrat.

Quite a thrifty business in the article of rough rice is springing up in this city, which will, if its increase continues in the future, be a successful rival of corn. There is scarcely a day that one or more boat loads do not arrive in market. There is a great difference in the quality of this rice and it sells all the way from sixty-five to ninety cents per bushel. Our friend, Mr. J. J. Wolfenden, seems to be the principal operator in this product of the farm; he was busy all day Monday sacking and otherwise preparing for shipment large quantities of this character of grain. We would be glad to see our sack-sewing brigade as large and as actively engaged as it was twelve years ago. It would add much to the prosperity of this city.

A Refractory Indian Chief Shot Dead

Some time ago a report was received by Commissioner Hayt from the Ponca reservation in the Indian Territory, that Big Snake, a chief of a band of the Poncas, was freely indulging in threats to kill the agent, Mr. Whiteman, who last summer had caused the arrest of Big Snake and his imprisonment for a month at Fort Reno for brutal and disorderly conduct, by which he made himself a terror to all the Indians and the agency employees. Upon receipt of the news of his threats of vengeance his rearrest was ordered and a detachment of soldiers from Fort Reno were employed to effect it. A telegram received from agent Whiteman Monday announces that Big Snake forcibly resisted arrest and was shot dead by a soldier. The occurrence caused considerable excitement among the Indians, but it was soon quieted, and at la-t accounts there was no fear of further difficulty.

Died at the Guard House.

Wilmington Star, 4th.

A colored man, about twenty-two years old, and who gave his name as James Stocks, died at the guard house at the City Hall yesterday evening. He was a stranger in the city, and said that he came from Fayetteville. He was found by a policeman on Saturday night last, lying under a rosin shed on South Water street, sick and unable to walk, and was carried to the City Hall, where he was attended by the city physician, and everything possible done for his relief, but he was so exhausted from fever and exposure, that all efforts to arouse him were futile.

The Late Senator Chandler.

An executive order issued by the President says: "The sad intelligence of the death of Zachariah Chandler, late Secretary of the Interior, and during so many years Senator from the State of Michigan, has been communicated to the government and to the country, and in proper respect to his memory I hereby order that the several executive departments be closed to public business and their flags and those of their departments throughout the country be displayed at half mast on the day of his funeral."

Monday morning, by order of Sergeant-at-Arms Bright, the Senate Chamber was draped in mourning, as a mark of respect to the deceased Senator.

A Monarchist.

New Berne Democrat.

The Southern people are shattered, weary and worn with the constant strife forced upon them by the Northern people; to obtain peace, rest and quiet, we believe that a majority of them would be willing to see Grant made Dictator. We are free to confess, as much as we loathe, abhor and detest Grant and Grantism, yet we would rather to-day see him Emperor of this country as a Nation, than to see any other man President of it under the semblance of a community of co-equal States. The workings of this government since the war has convinced us, that Republican institutions are but a snare and a delusion, and we are convinced that man is not capable of self-government.

Mattamuskeet Apples.

New Berne Democrat.

Mattamuskeet apples are now very plentiful in our market, and are selling all the way from twenty-five to sixty cents per bushel, as to quality. These apples are far superior in flavor to the Northern apple, and as one of the ingredients in the make-up of a mince pie are incomparable.

THE GENUINE

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with flux, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Also McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

THE REVIVAL OF TRADE.

Two West Side Cotton Dealers Find their Facilities Much Taxed.

New York Sun.

A junk dealer in Washington street buys scraps of iron, rags, wads of raw cotton, and other articles in his line from the small boys that swarm West street and the North River piers. Some of the boys have carried on a considerable trade in cotton. In addition to picking up such small bunches as have escaped from the bales in process of handling, their enterprise has led them to attach themselves to bales on the rear end of trucks and abstract as much cotton as they could conceal under their coats. Knowing nothing about this branch of their business, the Washington-street junk dealer has bought their cotton, and when he has found himself with sufficient material he has made it into a bale and exposed it in front of his shop.

For several days last week business was dull with the boys. Few trucks loaded with cotton bales were going through the streets, and the drivers were unusually watchful. Two of the boys hit upon a remedy for this depression of business. One of them capered carelessly in front of the junk dealer's shop, and when he tired of that he climbed to the top of a bale of cotton that the man had displayed. He whistled and sung selections from "Pinafore," dangled his bare feet over the edge of the bale, and basked in the not very warm sun. He was apparently the most indifferent urchin on the west side. Meanwhile his partner had cut a slit in the bale on the side furthest from the watchful junk dealer, and he was quietly abstracting cotton. When he had acquired all he could cary under his coat, he ran around the block and rushed into the junk shop. The dealer purchased his armful and the boy hied himself around the block to the invisible side of the cotton bale. Throughout the day he did a brisk business in cotton, the boy on the top of the bale whistling and singing and swinging his bare feet the while. Late in the afternoon he slipped down from his perch with much caution and sauntered away. When the junk dealer came to house his bale of cotton at nightfall he found that it had become a mere shell.

In the evening one of the boys was standing on the sidewalk in front of a hatchway and delivering an address on the "Revival of Trade" to an audience of urchins on the hatchway, and while waiting for the applause to permit him to proceed, he jingled a pocketful of pennies in a magnificent sort of way.

William Love, white, and Wilson Williams, colored, were brought down on the steamer Murchison Sunday in custody of deputy marshal Louis Smith, colored, under the charge of of running an illicit distillery at a point about three miles from Fayetteville in Cumberland county. The preliminary investigation was had before Thomas X. Smith, of Fayetteville, who considered the testimony against them sufficient to hold them for trial before the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, which convenes in this city to-day, Judge Brooks presiding.

Cuticura

FROM THE HON. WM. TAYLOR, STATE SENATOR OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings, but it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every sense of the word. I have been a great sufferer with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years. My head and face being covered with sores, I could not rest with the burning heat and itching of the parts affected, and was confined to my house for weeks at a time. My disease has been called eczema, of a most aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt if ever fully understood by any of them. It was more like a combination of several skin humors. I have spent much money seeking a cure, and in 1867 I went to Europe, and consulted some of the best physicians in London. I received temporary relief only, for in the spring it would break out again as bad as ever. When I came back to Boston, I was told by many friends that Dr. ——— (whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was of the highest order) could cure me. I waited on the doctor; he prescribed for me. I followed his advice for six months, and I can safely say, without any improvement. I tried other physicians and among them Dr. ———, of East Boston, and Dr. ———, of city proper, but all to no purpose. They did me no good; their remedies were so ineffectual that at no time did I feel that a cure would result from them.

I have swallowed five hundred arsenic pills, .50 grain, and taken bottle after bottle of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, but the effect was the same. I became satisfied that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse.

Some about three months ago, Mr. Meehan, a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTICURA, and promised wonderful results if I would only make a trial. He told me of his own experience with it, and so persevered on me that I went with him to a drug store and bought two large boxes of CUTICURA, and some CUTICURA SOAP, and commenced to use it according to the directions. There was so much humor lodged within the skin, that as soon as I commenced the use of CUTICURA it came to the surface and festered, until vast quantities had come out and greatly intensified my sufferings for about two weeks. But I did not mind this, as I felt that I was going to get rid of the humor when I saw it coming to the surface in such large quantities. After the first two or three weeks use of this remedy, I was greatly encouraged by a gradual lessening of the inflammation of a number of painful sores. I carefully, faithfully, and cheerfully followed the directions to the letter, feeling each week nearer a cure, until at the present moment, after three months use of CUTICURA, and twelve years of as constant suffering as was ever endured, I can say that I am cured, and pronounce my case the most remarkable on record. I have been so elated with my success that I have stopped men on the street who were afflicted, and told them to get the CUTICURA and it would cure them. This is why I am so grateful to you, for I believe it to be the best and greatest discovery of the age, and that it will cure all who are suffering with these diseases. I may add that I took no internal medicine but the CUTICURA RESOLVENT.

WILLIAM TAYLOR.

Their friends will be certain of clever treatment at their hands.

——Justice Barbee yesterday had Jerry Green, William Branch and Riley Phillips before him upon the charge of wilful injury to real property. It seems that the trio went out to lay in their winter's stock of wood, but somehow or other got on the wrong man's land to cut it. The Justice demanded a $50 bond of each for their appearance at the next term of Wake Superior Court. William and Riley managed to give the bond but Jerry is in jail in default of the same.

——Read the announcement of the Messrs. Tucker in "Now on Exhibition" in another column. They have just received a fresh assortment of dress fabrics, velvets and plushes and everything to be found in a first class establishment as theirs, at the very lowest prices. The Tuckers are too well known to the North Carolina public to require an introduction here. The NEWS can only announce the arrival of their goods and then feel assured that its readers know the rest.

——Raleigh is the best cow pasture in the middle section of the State. Some of the citizens own seven or eight. They cost much less than country cows do as most of the citizens have gardens, and the cows soon learn to open gates. One of the city councilmen owns the smartest, best, and easiest supported cow in town. Salisbury is noted for its hogs, Raleigh for the number and smartness of its cows.—Biblical Recorder.

THE BOONE MURDERERS ESCAPE.

Forty Men in Hot Pursuit—$100 Reward Offered.

Asheville Journal, 1st.

On Thursday of last week, about 10 o'clock P. M., the two Thos. Boones, under sentence of death, who had been confined in Yancey county jail for more than twelve months, made good their escape. They came out of the cage at the door and were standing behind the main door to the room when the guards opened the door. As the guards came in they were pushed aside, the Boones jumped through the door, pulled it to, and locked it on the outside, seized a gun and pistol that were left on the outside by the guard, and retreated out the back way, going in the direction of Mitchell county.

How they got of the cage is a mystery. A false key of home manufacture was found on the floor, but it was tried to the lock and failed to fit.

Many citizens in Yancey county are of opinion that the guard acted in concert with the criminals. They believe that the guards furnished the key to open the cell door, for the false key was of no avail, coupled with the fact that the guards say that they went into the cage-room at that late hour because they heard some rattling, but left their guns on the outside and went in unarmed. Again it is urged that the murderers were out in two or three nights after the new guards were put on. Why the old guards, that had been on duty twelve months or more, were discharged, we are unable to say, for it is very certain that the Butners, who were relatives of the man that one of the Boones had slain, would never have given the prisoners any chance to escape.

The citizens are highly excited and indignant over the matter. Forty men were pursuing the Boones at last accounts, with a hope of recapturing them.

The whole thing looks a little bad, but we hope the officers of Yancey county can explain these things to an indignant public. The sheriff offers $100 reward.

Judge Henry.

Asheville Journal.

We see that some western Republicans are urging the name of Judge Henry for Governor in 1880. If the Judge is nominated we see no reason why he cannot carry the State. We know of no other man we would more cheerfully support, but will go for the nominee, whoever he may be.

Burglary in Hendersonville.

Asheville Journal.

Mr. John Erwin's house was entered on Monday night by burglars, and his pants and $30 in money taken. The thief has not been arrested.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of all persons known to have been engaged in the lynching of Bill Young, at Luray, Mo., last Wednesday, after his acquittal of murder. Detective Lane, who was very active in procuring evidence against Young, is said to have led the mob. J. C. Coffman, one of Young's lawyers, it is said, admits that an attempt was made to bribe the jury.

Ned Murphy, formerly a slave, has made a partial payment on a stone to be planted in the graveyard at Due West, near Abbeville, S. C., over the grave of his old mistress, who died about the beginning of the war. Upon the stone is to be cut the words: "To my dead mistis." He has kept her grave green ever since her death, though it has been forgotten by others.

"Are you ready for trial, Mrs. Ferguson?" "Not yet, yer Honor." "And why not, pray?" "Shure, I'm makin' a new pollynaize to appear in on the watness-sthand, an' it's not quite ready, may it plaze the koort." "When will the gown be finished?" "I've got it all done but the thrimmin', an' I'll have that on by Chewsday, yer Honor." "Oyez! oyez! All witnesses in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Mrs. Furgeson will appear next Tuesday without further notice."

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof Green, Dr. Bartine, Col John K. McChesney, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject. *

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

The "Seven Springs Mass" furnishes a valuable remedy to relieve Uterine Hemorrhages and this class of female diseases far superior to the Dialysed Iron. FRED. HORNER, Jr., M. D.,
Sur. U. S. Navy.

Have been using the "Iron and Alum Mass" in my practice for the last ten months, with marked success in many cases. JOHN HUGHSON, M. D.,
Sumpter, S. C.

I am fully convinced from personal observation of the great therapeutic value of the "Seven Springs Mass" in the treatment of female complaints.

A. LANCASTER, M. D.,
Stormville, Miss.

Have had great success with "Iron and Alum Mass" in treating female diseases. It is a desirable medicine and should be better known by the profession. E. T. BAINBRIDGE, M. D.,
Baker's Station, Tenn.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

Adulteration prevails in our daily food. Food is a most important necessity, and it should be wholesome and nutritious. If all articles that are used were as pure and healthful as Dr Price's Cream Baking Powder, we should escape many of the ills of life.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, Eaton. It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney. LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward P. E., Na. Cou. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.
